SUBJECT: Webcast Teleconference
May 1, 2006, Flood Insurance Manual Changes

On Thursday, April 20, 2006, at 2:00 p.m. (ET), the National Flood Insurance Program Bureau & Statistical Agent will host a webcast teleconference to highlight the changes to the Flood Insurance Manual that will become effective May 1, 2006. This presentation is designed to update all WYO Principal Coordinators, underwriters, and vendor personnel.

If you are interested in participating in this teleconference, please register by noon on Wednesday, April 19, at <http://training.nfipstat.com/teleconference>. Your registration confirmation will include the telephone number and access code for the call. A link to the PowerPoint presentation will be provided to you approximately 10 minutes before the webcast is scheduled to begin.

Due to the limited number of lines available for this teleconference, we encourage groups to register and participate from a single telephone line. In addition, to achieve maximum efficiency in our presentation, we are requesting that all participants dial-in from a telephone that has a "mute" function available.

The May 2006 changes to the Flood Manual can be accessed at <http://www.fema.gov/business/nfip/manual200605.shtm>. Also available at this site is a summary of the May 2006 changes, the complete Main Edition of the Flood Insurance Manual to include the May 2006 changes, the Producer's Edition, and instructions for ordering a hardcopy of the Flood Insurance Manual from the FEMA Flood Map Store.

If you have specifics that you would like addressed in our teleconference or have any other questions, please contact your WYO Business Analyst.
